The "Brand Influence" seminar

Publisher: Pakistan Economist  Year: 2000

Horizon Incorporated, a human resource consultancy, recently organized "The Brand Influence" seminar which focused on current branding and marketing strategies and needs. The seminar was sponsored by leading organizations, namely, National Foods Limited, Hiltin Pharma (Pvt) Ltd., The DAWN Group of Newspapers, and SmithKline Beecham.

The one-day seminar, with a corporate audience of about 210 participants, was conducted by Dr. Nirmalya Kumar, a Ph.D. in Marketing from Kellogg Graduate School of Management who is currently the Professor of Marketing and Retailing at the International Institute for Management Development (IMD), Switzerland.

The Horizon team is proud to host an event of such quality and magnitude. The Brand Influence seminar served as a platform for the business community to further explore the proposition of their brands and determine customer value for better marketing and Monirah Tanvir, Managing Partner, Horizon Incorporated.

Dr. Kumar focused on today's branding trends, result-oriented strategies, needs, and the role played in the Customer Relationship Management (CRM) in the whole equation. Participants from various local and multinational organizations were present and learned more about brand leverage, consumer perception, and product extensions, whilst simultaneously establishing a strategic presence in a highly competitive market.

During the course of the seminar, a local perspective was also shared by National Foods Limited and Hiltin Pharma through their respective presentations which discussed the corporate hierarchy through effective branding strategies.

Horizon Incorporated is a leading human resource consultancy specializing in performance-based HR consulting services and training excellence, a rarity of management consulting firms that help organizations become productive through employee-intensive.
